

rainstick
TRADING

Cha Chas

These are made from seeds gathered in the Peruvian Amazon and then sewn together with colourful local material. They are a wonderful percussive instrument and can be worn on the wrist whilst dancing. They are incredibly tactile-just to hold them and roll them around your hands is satisfying. This product is completely sustainable and fairly traded.